

SEEK THE AUTHOR OF BOOK "I ACCUSE"

Germany Instigates Inquiry by Swiss Federal Council Because of New Attack.

(Copyright, 1918, New York World.)
Paris.—As the Swiss Federal council, acting under the instigation of the German legation in Bern, is opening an inquiry directed at the unknown author of "I Accuse" ("I Accuse"), it is at the same time threatening the great Francophile newspaper Gazette de Lausanne, if it persists in its attitude, which is termed "one likely to compromise the good relations existing between Switzerland and other states."

The cause of the great threat is an article by Dr. Serge Persky, published by the Gazette de Lausanne, in which the writer commented on the memoirs written by ex-Ambassador Gerard. Dr. Persky said in part:
"We can see that the author of the memoirs was a perfectly honest man, forced to live four years among mischievous, deceitful beings. But Germany has violated all divine and human laws. Her lies, her inexcusable savagery, her implacable destruction of the finest monuments on earth, burning precious museums, libraries, disgrace her forever. The world must crush her, otherwise the world is lost."

It is said the threat has had a totally different effect upon Swiss readers of the great liberal newspaper from that which was expected.
There are even Swiss people who, with the future of their country in mind, do not hesitate to say that in their opinion neutrals should range themselves on the side of the entente allies. These people, for the most part, are clever-sighted citizens of Helvetia, who, fully realizing the present situation, desire freedom of judgment.

The demand for an inquiry directed against the author of "I Accuse" is thought to have been caused by the latest work of the writer. His most recent book, entitled "The Crime," again shows that Germany premeditated the war. Already the Swiss

AVIATOR BAER REPORTED MISSING, PRISONER IN GERMANY

LIEUTENANT PAUL BAER.

Lieut. Paul F. Baer, of Fort Wayne, Ind., the American aviator who was listed as missing in a May casualty list, is a prisoner in Germany. News to this effect was obtained through the International Red Cross in Switzerland. Baer was formerly a member of the French flying corps, and has been decorated with the Croix de Guerre and Distinguished Service cross.

Federal council has forbidden the sale of the book in Switzerland. Germany through her legation in Bern, wants to find out the name of the author, but very few privileged persons know who the man is. Investigations have been made in the big library at Lausanne, with what result is so far unknown.

Harden Lays His Lash Upon the All-Highest One

(Copyright, 1918, New York World.)
London.—The Daily Telegraph's Rotterdam correspondent, writing Sunday's date, says that the latest number of Maximilian Harden's Zukunft is as scathing an indictment of Germany's policy and her rulers and statesmen as has yet been light.

It is entitled "The Eternal Sickness," by which the writer means the desire for world dominion, and he clearly implies that it is in Germany where this sickness is raging.

Not only does Kuehlmann fall under Harden's scornful lash, but also the kaiser himself, in connection with whose recent outburst against the Anglo-Saxon world conception Harden recalls the contrary view expressed by the emperor in his famous London Telegraph interview.

Referring to the kaiser's speech, Harden writes:
"He did not always think thus—he who, as the son of a British woman, once, in an unhappily famous interview declared himself England's only friend in an Anglophobe nation.

"In his opinion now the people of the world are under the yoke of the Anglo-Saxon dominatory race, for whom they are working as slaves, and the war cannot end ere one of the different world conceptions has unconditionally conquered—Prussian-Germanic freedom, right, honor and morality or Anglo-Saxon idolizing of money."

"Why was Von Kuehlmann's speech discussed in foreign countries only with contempt and abused at home with fury? Because there was nothing in it which convinced them of the uprightness of its author. The restoration of Belgium to its condition of July, 1914, must be guaranteed, or the answer put off until America, England and France have been so defeated that even after a period of years they will not be able to raise themselves and will declare themselves conquered. Anything else is sham fighting."

"He who loudly counts Belgium as among the hostages, that is, among the territories gained after the open declaration of war, increases thereby in foreign countries the crowds of those who do not attribute to the Prussian-Germanic spirit freedom, right, honor and morality."

For a full appreciation of Harden's daring it must be remembered that his concluding five words, quoted with ironical reiteration in the course of the article, are from the kaiser's "two world conceptions" speech.

HEAVY SNOW REPORTED IN SOUTHERN BRAZIL

(Associated Press.)
Rio Janeiro, July 12.—Unusual cold and heavy snow is reported from all parts of southern Brazil and the coffee plantations in the state of San Paulo have been damaged seriously. Early reports place the loss at 600,000 coffees.
The coffee production in San Paulo in 1918, 1919 and 1920 probably will be curtailed, as thousands of plants have been destroyed in many sections.

RUSSIANS ASK U. S. TO LEND ASSISTANCE

(Copyright, 1918, by New York World.) Archangel.—The situation here is entirely different from that in Murmansk, where the local soviet has invited the help of the allies. The soviet here formerly sided with the allies, but control is now in Moscow, making the extension of allied help for Russia difficult in this region, though it is welcome in Murmansk.

The situation requires finesse and diplomacy in avoiding any brusqueness, which would ruin the chance of help.

I find that here, as in Murmansk, the Russians and the allies agree that American aid should be equal to that of the other allies. It will be necessary to have help of a united allied character.

VETERAN LETTER CARRIER IN JAIL FOR PETTY THEFT

(Associated Press.)
New York, July 12.—A German letter carrier with a record of twenty-six years of service in Soemmerda was recently sentenced to serve three months in prison for "stealing" thirty-five coffee beans which had fallen from a parcel post package in the postoffice, says the Berlin Tageblatt.

ROME BOY GIVES LIFE FOR COUNTRY'S CAUSE

Donald M. Blankenship Dies in French Hospital as Result of Wounds.

(Special To The News.)

Rome, Ga., July 12.—Donald M.
Blankenship, of route 2, Rome, enlisted in the United States marines shortly after the death of his mother in April, 1916, and was sent overseas among the first of the expeditionary forces.

He was wounded in action at Chateau-Marigny in April of this year, sent to hospital suffering from severe injuries of the left leg from a German shell and wrote from the hospital to his father here that he would probably lose his leg, but it was all right, as his regiment had driven back the enemy.

Later he wrote that he was recovering fast and would go back to the trenches as soon as he could.

He lingered until after having the leg amputated, but died on June 27.
A member of his company named Dan Blankenship, unrelated to him, was killed in action June 12 and in some way the two became confused on the company lists, both being members of the Eighty-ninth company, and Gen.
Barnett, commandant of the marines, wired from Washington to the young marine's father here that Donald was dead.

Two days later Gen. Barnett wired that it was Dan and not Don Blankenship who was dead and the family grief was changed to joy. However, last Tuesday Gen. Barnett wired to the father here that his son, too, had died on June 27, and joy was again changed to mourning. Dan Blankenship was a Texas man, a friend of Donald's, who had written home about him several times.

Donald Blankenship was one of three brothers, all in the service of the United States. The younger brother, Clyde, is an aviator, stationed in Texas, and is soon to leave for France, and the elder brother, James, is employed in an ammunition plant in the east.

Clyde is only 18 years old and enlisted a few months ago. The family is well known in this county.

AMERICAN TROOPS ARE CONCENTRATING

(By Lincoln Eyre.)

(Copyright, 1918, by New York World.) With the American forces on the Marne, via Paris.—The groupings of American units are larger today than they were and doubtless they will be far larger. Where the tendency was to scatter our troops about all along the line, it now is to concentrate them in a few places.

As time goes on the number of these places, I believe, will tend to become fewer, until instead of six or seven American sectors, there will be one or two American fronts.

Of course, the authority of the American officers would be limited by the needs of the situation as interpreted by the interallied generalissimo, but only to the extent that the British army is limited.

HAMBURG TO GET GREATEST GERMAN SHIPBUILDING YARD

Amsterdam, June 12.—(Correspondence Associated Press.)—It is planned to establish the largest shipbuilding yard in Germany at Hamburg, says the Hamburger Nachrichten. The combination of interests at the back of this concern includes the Hamburg-American line, and the new company has a provisional capital of 10,000,000 marks.
